Dr. Eunice Araba Turkson

AUTHOR • EDUCATOR • SPEAKER
HERITAGE ADVOCATE

Dr. Eunice Araba Turkson is an accomplished educator with more than 20 years of experience in education. She is a children's author, educational leader, and passionate advocate for preserving African heritage through literacy and storytelling.

Inspired by Ghana's rich culture and the timeless wisdom of Adinkra symbols, she created the Araba's Heritage Series to help children discover values such as Strength, Wisdom, Courage, Leadership, Unity, and Gratitude while celebrating African history and identity.

Her engaging books encourage children to embrace their roots, build confidence, and develop character through meaningful stories that connect generations.
